Section 4. Enforcement of Disorderly Houses, Prostitution Locations, and Chop Shops.

4.1. It is unlawful for any person within the County of Elbert to commit any of the following acts:

- (1) To knowingly, intentionally or recklessly keep any disorderly house.
- (2) To knowingly, intentionally or recklessly keep a place of prostitution.
- (3) To knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly keep, cause or permit to be kept any public or private place, property, or premises which allows or encourages professional gambling; illegal distribution, possession, or use of controlled substances; illegal distribution, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages or ethyl alcohol; soliciting for prostitution; or trafficking of stolen property.
- (4) To knowingly, intentionally or recklessly permit another person to commit any act declared unlawful by this Ordinance in or upon any property or premises owned, possessed or under a person with management or control when the person has the power to prevent such act.

Section 5. Restraining and Punishing Loiterers and Prostitutes.

5.1. It is unlawful for any person within Elbert County to commit any of the following acts:

- (1) Loitering for purposes prohibited by C.R.S. § 18-9-112 (2).
- (2) Loitering for the purpose of illegally obtaining cigarettes or tobacco products or for the purpose of illegally obtaining, illegally possessing, or illegally consuming alcoholic beverages, or ethyl alcohol.
- (3) Prostitution, soliciting for prostitution, pandering, keeping a place of prostitution, or pimping, as the same are defined in C.R.S. § 18-7-201, et seq. or as previously defined in this Ordinance.

custodian has knowingly, intentionally or recklessly permitted, encouraged, or allowed a minor to commit loitering for the purposes prohibited in Section 5 paragraphs 5.1 (1) and (2) of this Ordinance or prostitution, soliciting for prostitution, pandering, keeping a place of prostitution, or pimping in violation of Section 5 paragraph 5.1 (3).

Section 6. Regulating Noise on Public, Private and State Property.

6.1 It is unlawful for any person within Elbert County to commit any of the following acts:

- (1) To make, continue, encourage or cause to be made any unnecessary, unusually loud, or in itself unusual sound or noise which either annoys, injures or endangers the comfort, health, or safety of other persons or which interferes with the private enjoyment of surrounding environment, or which could reasonably be expected to do so.
- (2) To produce within or upon a vehicle sound or noise by means of electronic or pneumatic amplification equipment which sound or noise is audible outside a vehicle, and which sound or noise is not commercial or political speech or which is not caused as a part of a legal and organized parade or rally.
- (3) To operate any vehicle that is not equipped with a muffler in constant operation and is not properly maintained to prevent an increase in the noise emitted by the vehicle above the noise emitted when the muffler was originally installed; or to operate any vehicle having a muffler that has been equipped or modified with a cutoff, or bypass, or any similar device or modification.
- (4) It shall be prima facie evidence that this Ordinance has been violated if, between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. in any location zoned for residential occupancy, sound or noise emanating from any premise or property shall exceed the level of normal human conversation at the property line of the property from which the sound or noise is emanating. For the purpose of this Ordinance, a law enforcement officer is empowered to make a prima facie determination whether sound or noise violates this Ordinance. In making such determination, the officer shall consider the constancy or intermittence of the noise and the beat frequency or shrillness thereof. The officer may consider such other matters and extenuating circumstances as he or she in the exercise of reasonable judgement may observe or hear, including, without limitation, duration of sound or noise, time of day or night, day of week, and distance of sound or noise source from the complainant or person affected.
- (5) Except as exempted in Section 6 paragraph 6.2 of this Ordinance, this Ordinance shall apply to all sound or noise, whether on public, private or state property, whether stationary or mobile, including, without limitation, animal noises; vehicle noises; tool, equipment and machinery noises; music; and the use of television, radios, disk players, tape players, powered speakers, musical instruments, and amplifiers, or sound or noise exceeding maximum permissible noise levels as stated in C.R.S. § 25-12-103.

6.2. The regulation of sound or noise on public, private and state property by this Ordinance shall not apply to the following:

- (1) Property used for purposes which are exempt, pursuant to C.R.S. § 25-12-103, from noise abatement.

- (2) Property which is zoned and used for manufacturing, industrial, or commercial business purposes or property which is used for agricultural purposes.
- (3) Public utilities regulated pursuant to C.R.S. Title 40.
- (4) Oil and gas production subject to the provisions of C.R.S. Article 60 of Title 34.
- (5) Operation of emergency vehicles.
- (6) Construction or building activity requiring a building permit and generally conducted during normal business hours.
- (7) Utility installation or repair generally occurring during normal business hours and emergency utility repair occurring at any time.
- (8) Lawn, grounds, and right-of-way maintenance activity which is temporary and generally conducted during daylight hours.
- (9) Activities which are authorized governed and/or controlled by the terms of an approved Elbert County conditional use permit or special events permit.
- (10) The lawful discharge of firearms; the lawful discharge of fireworks pursuant to C.R.S. Title 12, Article 28; or the lawful discharge of explosives pursuant to C.R.S. Title 9, Article 7, or C.R.S. Title 34, Articles 20-54.

Section 7. Penalties.

7.1 Any person who violates any provision of this Ordinance commits a class 2 petty offense.

7.2 With regard to the following Sections and paragraphs of this Ordinance, each day during which a violation exists or continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

- (1) Section 3, paragraph 3.1 (9).
- (2) Section 4, paragraphs 4.1 (1) – (4).
- (3) Section 6, paragraph 6.1 (3).

7.3 Penalty Assessment Procedure. Except as set forth in Section 7 paragraph 7.4, the penalty assessment procedure provided in C.R.S. § Section 16-2-201, may be followed by any arresting or citing law enforcement officer for any violation of this Ordinance, as follows:

- (1) When a person is arrested or cited for violation of this Ordinance, the officer may either give the person a penalty assessment notice (citation) and release him/her upon its terms or take him/her before a judge of the county court in Elbert County after arrest.
- (2) The penalty assessment notice (citation) shall be a summons and complaint containing identification of the alleged offender, specification of the offense and applicable fine, a requirement that the alleged offender pay the fine or appear to answer the charge at a specified time and place, and any other matter reasonably adapted to effectuating the purposes of this section. A duplicate copy shall be sent to the clerk of the county court in Elbert County.
- (3) If the person given a penalty assessment notice (citation) chooses to acknowledge his/her guilt, he/she may pay the specified fine in person or by mail at the place and within the time specified in the notice. If he/she chooses not to acknowledge his/her guilt, he/she shall appear as required in the notice. Upon trial, if the alleged offender is found guilty, the fine imposed shall be that specified in the notice for the offense of which he/she was found guilty, but customary court costs may be assessed against him/her in addition to the fine.

7.4 Any violation of provisions of this Ordinance by a person on the first incident within a six (6) month period shall result in a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00). A second violation of any provision of this Ordinance within a six (6) month period shall result in a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00). A third or further violation of this Ordinance within a six (6) month period shall result in a fine of three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each violation. The first violation of the provisions of this Ordinance within a six (6) month period may be disposed of without the requirement of an appearance before the court. Second and third or further violations of the provisions of this Ordinance within a six (6) month period shall require the appearance of the person in the County Court of Elbert County on an appointed date to answer the charges.

7.5 Any establishment which engages in repeated or continuing violations of this Ordinance shall constitute a public nuisance. The Elbert County Attorney, or the District Attorney of the Eighteenth Judicial District acting pursuant to C.R.S. § 16-13-302, may bring an action in the District Court of Elbert County for an injunction against the operation of such establishment in a manner which violates this Ordinance.

Section 8. Disposition of Fines.

8.1 All fines imposed and collected for any violation of this Ordinance shall be paid into the general fund of Elbert County.

Section 9. Remedies and/or Penalties to be Cumulative.

9.1 Remedies and/or penalties hereunder shall be cumulative with and in addition to any other remedy and/or penalty authorized by law, statute, ordinance, or resolution. The terms of this Ordinance shall not deprive any person or governmental entity of any right of action it may have, or prevent charging under any other federal law, state law, or local law, ordinance, code, or resolution.

Section 10. Non-Liability.

10.1 Neither the Elbert County Board of County Commissioners, nor the Elbert County Sheriff, nor any of their respective officers, employees, or agents authorized to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be held responsible for any accident or subsequent disease or for any loss or damages resulting from enforcement of this Ordinance.

Section 11. Conflict among Ordinances, Resolutions or Codes.

11.1 If the terms of this Ordinance conflict with the terms of any other Elbert County ordinance, resolution, or code, the more restrictive ordinance, resolution, or code shall apply.

Section 12. Savings Clause.

12.1 If any provision or provisions of this Ordinance are determined by a court of law to be invalid, such a determination shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Ordinance. To this end, the provisions of this Ordinance are determined and declared to be severable.

Section 13. Safety Clause.

13.1 The Elbert County Board of County Commissioners hereby finds and determines that adoption of this Ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and welfare.

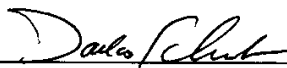

INTRODUCED, READ AND DESIGNATED AN ORDINANCE NECESSARY FOR THE IMMEDIATE PRESERVATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY, AND WELFARE ON FIRST READING, on the 14th day of November, 2018, and ordered published in full in the Elbert County News.
